Your gateway to the energy marketplace...

We invite you to participate as an exhibitor in the nation's most active buying event for end use energy products and services serving the commercial, industrial, institutional, municipal, and governmental markets. For 2017 AEE is very pleased to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the WORLD ENERGY ENGINEERING CONGRESS (WEEC) in Atlanta, once again bringing together thousands of leading energy management decision makers from throughout the U.S. and abroad as they actively seek innovative approaches to lower their energy costs, see firsthand what's new, and to assure reliable, economical, secure energy supplies for their organizations.

Controlling energy costs and assuring both economical and sustainable future energy supplies are the highest priorities for WEEC attendees. You'll meet face to face with the key buyers you most need to reach. Professionals who attend the show are aware of the proven payback of dollars spent to secure their organization's energy-economic future, and will typically visit your booth with specific goals in mind.

The WEEC show floor offers a robust selling environment for those marketing energy efficiency, high performance building systems, distributed energy, renewable and alternative energy, as well as all related products and services. As the shopping place of choice for four decades, the WEEC is attended by more active buyers of energy products and services than any other show in North America.

WEEC targets the technologies and services of greatest importance to show attendees...

- Energy efficient technologies
- Renewable and alternative energy
- Combined heat and power/cogeneration/distributed generation
- Advanced lighting products/lighting controls
- High-performance HVAC systems/controls
- Boilers and combustion controls
- Solar, wind, and fuel cell technologies
- Integrated building automation/energy management
- Thermal storage and load management
- Geoexchange technologies
- Applications specific to government and federal programs
- Energy services and project financing

FedEnergyWorks

If you specifically target government energy projects, you can strategically position your 2017 booth location to be within the FEDEnergyWorks Pavilion of the 2017 WEEC show floor. The Federal Energy Management Workshops (FEDEnergyWorks), which are a part of the overall WEEC program, are specially focused training sessions designed to help federal energy and facility managers reduce their energy costs, enhance their sustainability portfolio, comply with executive orders, manage green-house gas emissions, and exchange ideas with industry peers. The concurrent FEDEnergyWorks Expo will attract this quality cross section of federal, as well as state and local government energy and facility managers attending WEEC 2017—those who must identify the technologies, products and services which can best serve them in meeting their energy efficiency, sustainability, renewable energy, and cost reduction mandates.

GreenStreet

WEEC's tremendously successful GreenStreet expo showcase, introduced in 2007 and co-presented by the U.S. EPA's ENERGY STAR®, will again be a prominent part of the WEEC show floor for 2017. Placing your exhibit along the "green carpet" of GreenStreet will afford you a unique opportunity to network and showcase your environmentally friendly, sustainable energy products directly to green-motivated buyers. The 2017 World Energy Engineering Congress conference program will also educate and guide attendees as they seek the best and most promising sustainable solutions for improving building performance.

Force Majeure: In the event the Exhibit Hall or any part of the exhibit area thereof is unavailable whether for the entire event, or a portion of the event as a result of wind, fire, flood, tempest, act of God or nature, or any other such cause or as a result of governmental intervention, malicious damage, acts of war, acts of terrorism, strike, lockout, labor dispute, riot or any other cause or agency over which Show Management has no control, or should Management decide that because of any such cause it is necessary to cancel, postpone, or resite this show, AEE, Show Management, Host, and Sponsors shall not be liable to indemnify or reimburse the Exhibitor in any respect of any damage or loss, direct or indirect, arising as a result thereof.

2. Upon submitting booth contract we understand booth space is non-cancelable and we agree to adhere to the cancellation policy terms (No. 8). Island exhibits must not include a back wall that blocks visibility of neighboring booths. In-line booth side-dividers of a height in excess of 36" must not extend further than three (3) feet out from the back wall. Booth walls or equipment displayed must not exceed eight (8) feet in height. Any exceptions must first be approved by Exhibition Management. The Association of Energy Engineers reserves the right to reject advertising for any reason whatsoever.

6. All exhibits must be set up by 5:00 pm the evening prior to the opening of the show. Booth space not set up and claimed by the evening prior to the show opening will be forfeited and may be reassigned by Show Management at its discretion. AEE reserves the right to force set an exhibitor's booth if freight has been delivered or remove freight from the floor prior to show opening. All charges will be applied to the exhibitor's account.
